

Neurology update for Acute Physicians Monday 20 May 2019 EICC Edinburgh

This neurology update for acute physicians is designed to cover key topics in neurology for acute physicians and other physicians based on acute admissions units. The training day has been designed by neurologists who work alongside acute physicians to support the diagnosis and management of common acute neurological presentations.

The sessions will be case-based with a focus on practical advice.

Neurology update for Acute Physicians
12:30	Registration
13:00	Acute headache on the MAU: beyond "SAH excluded" Richard Davenport, Edinburgh
13:30	Organic vs. functional Jon Stone, Edinburgh
14:00	Making sense of numbness and tingling Colin Mumford, Edinburgh
14:30	Coffee and tea
15:00	A stroke or not a stroke (or TIA)? Fozia Nazir, Glasgow
15:30	Seizures, pseudo seizures and emergency management John Paul Leach, Glasgow
16:00	Legs don't work Jon Sussman, Manchester
16:30	Reception and light refreshments
17:00	Neurology exam masterclass: what our errors can teach us David Nicholl, Birmingham
1745	End

Registration - £50

For more information visit www.abn.org.uk